David Macdonald Memorial Award	1	$150		Donor: Mary Bosley in honour of the late David Macdonald. David Macdonald (1952-1972) had artistic talent which was recognized at an early age by his teachers in public school. While attending St. Andrew's College, he won many prizes for his artwork and took an active role in the artistic side of the school magazine. Some of his pen and ink drawings displayed a lively sense of humour. After graduating with honours from St. Andrew's, he began studying art at Central Technical High School, when he died at the young age of 20. His family is anxious that other young talents have the opportunity to flourish and blossom, and have contributed this award in David's memory.
